

business matters

Paulo de Sousa Oliveira Jr – biographical notes

CEO of BRAIN - Brazil Investments and Business an association formed by the Brazilian government, international financial institutions (HSBC, Santander, Citi, UBS, etc) and Brazilian companies to foster Brazil as an international financial centre for Latin America.

Keynote speaker in Seminars and Conferences about Brazil, the new world economy and the role of the BRIC countries (Brazil, Russia, India and China). Operates among the G20 nations and comments on the emerging markets, especially Brazil's remarkable economic resilience.

Former Chief Business Development Officer of BM&F BOVESPA, the new Brazilian exchange. It is the largest stock and derivatives exchange in Latin America and the 4th largest listed exchange in the world.

Former Head of Treasury of Bank of New York in Brazil

Engineering graduate of the Escola Politécnica da Universidade de São Paulo

Physics graduate of the Instituto de Física da Universidade de São Paulo

In his spare time, serves as the Senior Pastor of Christian Family Church, a network of 50 churches in Brazil