

Chaplaincy Services in the West End and City Centre of Edinburgh

Pressure and stress at work or at home. Need to talk to someone?

Support is available for people of all faiths and none. All are welcome to talk to “listening ears” at any of the following organisations. Contact through emails and web sites.

Business Matters: – available to support, connect and encourage those working in the Edinburgh business community. Events include Business Praise, Business Life Groups, and postings on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and LinkedIn.

email: michael@businessmattersedinburgh.com and Michael will help.

Oasis for the Business People: Find peace at St Cuthbert’s Church – Soul Space every first Wednesday of the month from 1pm at the Church and a monthly lunch time talk on topical work issues every last Thursday of the month at 12.30pm. One to one confidential chat available.

email: office@stcuthberts-edinburgh.uk; and Martin will help.

Arts & Theatre Chaplain. David is a specialist chaplain supporting people in the arts and theatre businesses. He is a former theatre manager and knows the theatre world well email: david.todd@dwst.net; and David will help.

General Information Numbers from St Cuthbert’s. If you need a telephone number for homeless service, food, shelter, hostel, money, fuel poverty, benefits advice, medical help, help for women, help for young people, help for asylum seekers and prayer, then email or phone:

email office@stcuthberts-edinburgh.uk; or telephone 0131 229 1142

Note: Workplace Chaplaincy Scotland organises chaplains to visit places of work to meet people in their own environment. Offering pastoral and spiritual support in the highs and lows of life and always in strictest confidence.
